British Ladies County Championship 2019

The third Ladies match of the County Championship was held this Sunday 21st July against Shropshire. The Home venue was played at Esclusham and the Away venue was Newport BC.

The Referee for the Home match was Derrick Evans. For all our county teams, the match against Shropshire is keenly fought – the border being so close.

Sarah Nicholas (Gresford Colliery) at number one led the team away with a 21-16 win. Emily Gowen (Broughton), who led well at the start of her game before her opponent began to catch up, gave us the best win of the day at 21-10. She was followed closely by Gemma Buxton (Esclusham) with 21-13. With two wins and two losses away from Home, Shropshire and Wales were level pegging after the first four.

In the middle four, Amanda Nicholas (Gresford Colliery) and Ashley Zepeda (Nercwys) made really great starts to their respective games. In the end, Ashley had a titanic game with Helen Martin and won 21- 18 with Amanda finally securing a 21-19 win. At number six, Donna Craven (Brymbo) down at at start of her game, clawed back a few precious points on a long mark but lost 21-16.

The final four were pretty evenly matched with Kara Singleton (Parciau) ending with the best win 21-14.

There were only two winners Away from home. Sue Vayro (Old Colwyn) won 21-16 and Miriam Forder (Rhos Park) won 21-19.

Final Home venue score. Wales 222 Shrophsire 214

Final Away score. Wales 172 Shropshire 245
